Cathedran

1957

Cathedral High School
Indianapolis, Indiana

His Excellency
The Most Reverend Paul C. Schulte, D.D.
Archbishop of Indianapolis

Foreword

The 1957 CATHEDRAN pretends to do what yearbooks usually do, present to you, the student body, the events of the past year which have already become memories of a by-gone year. Within these pages you will see yourself as others saw you in nineteen fifty-six and fifty-seven. We hope your individual portraits have found you at your best, that classroom shots will remind you of opportunities which you had for learning, that faculty pictures will remind you of a belief in a way of life which calls for Catholic schools, that honors could have been achieved by all, that part of the joy of life is to be found in giving of yourself by participation in the activities Cathedral has to offer.

If for a moment you enjoy some picture, a page, or some part of this book, then our objective has been achieved: to place in the untouchable file of your memory images which in a later year will once again be mirrored and then become, in truth, the bliss of solitude.

May the years which lie ahead be blessed and many

Brother Remigius Bullinger, C.S.C.

Dedication

Brother Matthew Gara and Brother Remigius Bullinger have each completed twenty-five years in the sacred service of indicating to other souls the way which leads to Christ. Each in a special manner has been an instrument of the Holy Ghost, shedding light where there was darkness, bringing His truth where there was ignorance, leading others along His mystical path when the highways of life seemed more inviting.

We dare not intrude upon the mysticism of such service. We only stand in wonder and in awe of God's great grace, and in the quiet place within our hearts we ask God to bless them in some special way and with some special grace that they might continue for years to come to be among those privileged to instruct others unto justice.

English

Freshmen are strange but wonderful people. They are not particularly fond of English, though they will speak it. Brother Edgar will vouch for that!

Algebra

They will go along with Brother Charles' Algebra Class—as long as they pass.

Physical Education

They shine at Physical Education under the direction of Mr. Winegard.

General Business

Notebooks, Workbooks, and smiles with Brother Dunstan—but you've got to keep an eye on them

Latin

They see no reason for taking Latin, though Brother John Stundon does.

Guidance

And so does Brother Viator who tries to guide them through these rocky days.

Freshmen—they shouldn't but they do gang up on stairways.

And all of this has to be explained to parents who love them more than anyone else in the world!

I will go up to the altar of God,
to God Who gives youth and happiness

THE STUDENT COUNCIL, under the sponsorship of Brother Francis Assisi, C.S.C., for the scholastic year 1956-57 has again undertaken to act as the contact between the student body and the school administration. This year, however, marked a milestone in the history of the Student Council. Although the Student Council has been operating effectively in the school, it has not had a Constitution. The Constitution has now been completed. Other activities, such as ushering at school events, taking an active part in social and civic undertakings, are part and parcel of the Student Council.

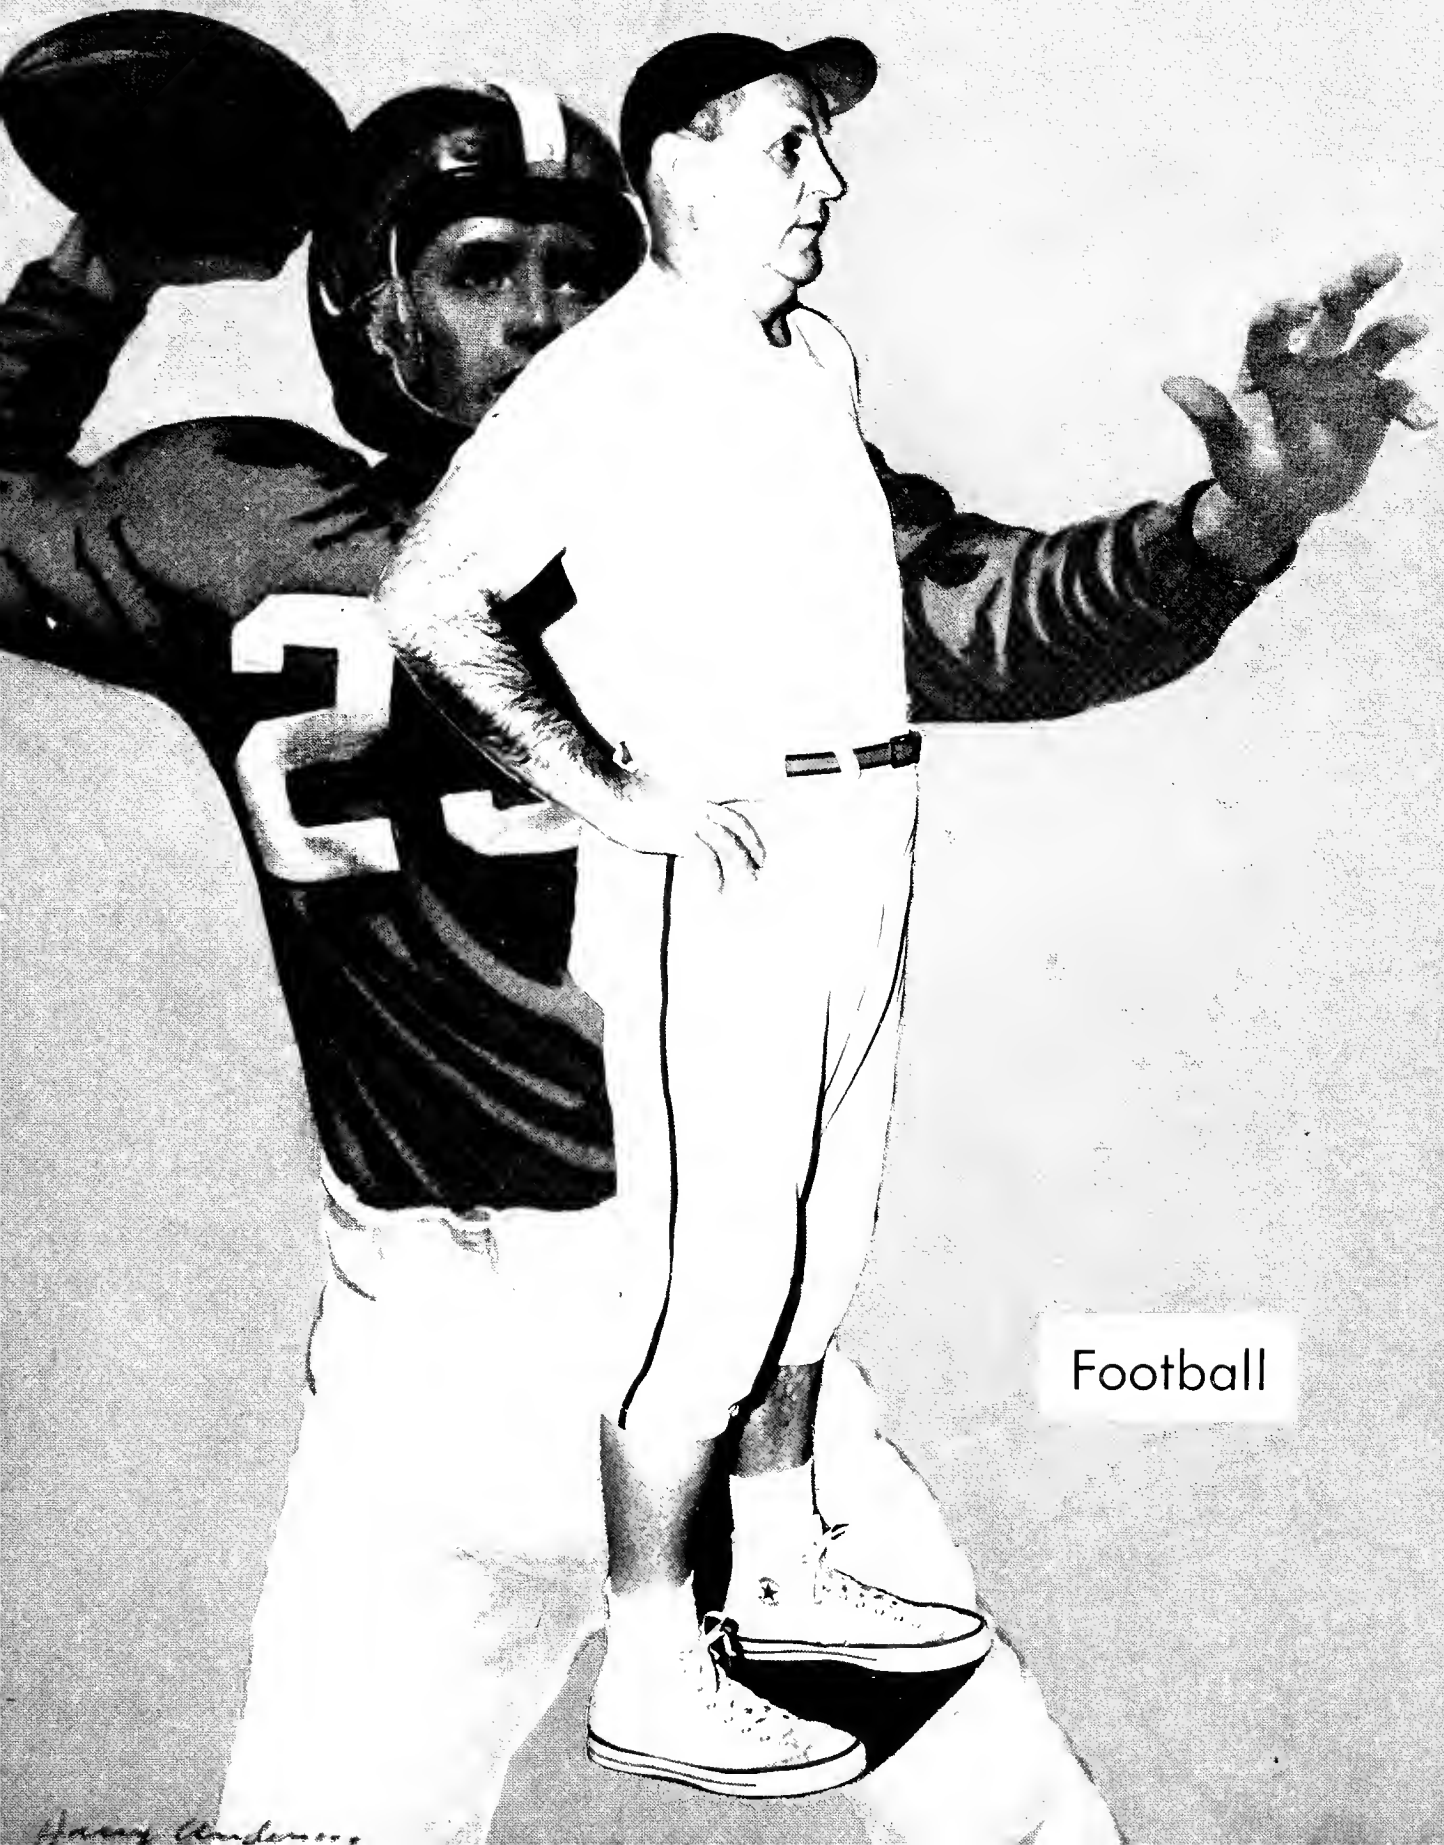

The Student Council is composed of the Class Officers of each of the four classes; in addition there are class representatives: four for the Seniors, three for the Juniors, two for the Sophomores, and one for the Freshmen. An Executive Committee is composed of five elected members from the Student Council. It is their work to carry on the preparatory work before presenting problems to the Council. This committee is composed of James Crossen, Fritz Bloemker, Dan Gallagher, John Kirch, and John Hiatt.

Members of the Student Council talk things over with the Principal, Brother Pedro, C.S.C.

Happy Days

Here's the word from Kay Warren: If Fritz Bloemker doesn't play football for Colburn, the game is lost to Tanner, and they might as well give Colburn back to the Founding Fathers.

It's Astronomy that's holding up the works, but Judy Bunnell has the brain for solving the problem.

Professor Don Sherfick is the fly in the ointment; Don Cline is all for killing the fly, but Al Keckler won't let him.

Everything is in a state of confusion!

Trainer Larry Sweeney won't stick around to see the team die for Colburn.

Boys on campus are ready and willing to throw freshman Tony Laurenzana to the Tanners.

And the gals down at Sigma Chi are definitely on the warpath.

Old grads in the bleachers catch pneumonia,
but no one on the team will catch the ball!

Meanwhile, back at the frat house, the boys chant lave songs to The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi!

J u d y
w i n s ,

Don Cline discovers You've Got To Be A Football Hero to make the girls go ga-ga and someone like Barbara Bates dances for joy!

Now the Coach is happy, the team is happy, the students are happy, and even the stage crew relaxes and looks back on another Student Theatre production—all part of Happy Days.

The show was written and directed by Brother Richard McDonald, C.S.C.

WHITE SHEEP OF THE FAMILY

Directed by Brother Remigius, C.S.C.

Dennis Linsin raises a toast to his great, great grandfather and progenitor of the longest and funniest line of crooks in London; his sticky-fingered wife, Carol Sullivan, and his kleptomaniac daughter, Joan Zimmer, join him. Vicar Donald Sherfick doesn't know what it's all about but he drinks "to crime" anyway.

Vince Todd dodges behind sofa to avoid Police Commissioner Robert Koesters and his little safe-cracking daughter, Sue Madrall.

Maid Ronny Ruckelshaus gapes over diamond clips—which she manages to clip before the second curtain.

Vicar Sherfick has his pockets picked by Joan Zimmer while mother, Carol Sullivan, distracts him, and father Dennis Linsin looks nervously on.

But what's a play without love interest? Ray Grannan finally gets the girl, Sue Madrall, but only after he has reverted back to his black fleece. Ronny and Vince came along for the picture.

The cast under the direction of Brother Remigius had an unforgettable time, and so did the audience. Sets were by Brothers Jerome and John Hart.

Consider the power of the press!

Working on the Cathedran Staff opens up a new realm of practical experiences valuable for the future.

Brother Just, Cathedran Business Manager, and Thomas Burnett, Henry Frommeyer, James Carter, Thomas Moran, Donald Sherrick, Peter Pehrson.

Megaphone Staff

News, past, present, and future, is put into the hands of the students each six weeks by the MEGAPHONE STAFF: Editors, Robert Koesters and Neil Martin, assisted by reporters: William Wickham, John Kirch, James Carter, Pete Pehrson, Joe Peterson, James Hill, Tom Burnett, Dave Filiotreau, Charles and Malachy Collet, Don Sherfick, and Bill Pyle. Faculty Moderator, Brother John Hart.

Poster Club

It pays to advertise is the principle on which the Poster Club operates. Brother Victorian, C.S.C. and his art staff, Mike Kreffel, John McMahon, Paul Donis, and Jerry Marlatt see to it that every important affair at Cathedral is given plenty of publicity.

M A T H C L U B

Below, members of the Math Club under the sponsorship of Brother Charles, C.S.C. challenge their own interest and ability at math. Motto: "The more complicated the problem, the more intriguing."

MEMBERS: Leo Clouser, Jim Durbin, Jerry Hindel, George Bifano, Bob Lewis, Rhody Shiel, Joe LeBon, John Ford, Bill Melrose, Bob Hughes, Vic Somrak, Tam White, and Ed Donahue.

Library Staff

Brother Richard McDonald, C.S.C. and his library staff, John Bischoff, William Wickham, and Thomas Hennessy, are responsible for the acquisition of latest books and the cataloging and distribution of the many books in the library.

Photography Club

The Photography Club is an attempt to give those boys who are interested in the subject an opportunity to get together to discuss and share their experiences in the field. Members this year: Gregory Cooper, Henry Frommeyer, Joe Peterson, Pete Pehrson, Paul Donis, David DeHoll, and Ronald Garvin.

Dances

The Seniors held the first school dance of the year. No harvest moon, but a harvest mood. Good music, good dancing, good food, good time.

Freshmen, on the night of their party, had a success on their hands.

What with a Grand March, a grand orchestra, and grand entertainment, who wouldn't have a grand time!

Sweetheart Ball

Make way for the Queen! It's time for the SWEETHEART BALL. The nobility of Cathedral filled the auditorium. The music of the Cathedral High Hatters was regal. Decorations made things majestic. A triumphant time was had by all!

Chaperones enjoyed the evening too. SEATED: Dr. and Mrs. Albert Donato, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. George Wagner, and Mrs. Dallas Daniels.

Queen of the SWEETHEART BALL, Patsy Lewis is crowned by Sophomore Class President, Al Donato — Attendants and Class Officers are there too: John Schmitt and Sue Cain, Julian Wagner and Connie Morrow, John Nonte and Phillis Wilson, Dallas Daniels and Rita Hines. Royalty crowded the floor.

Assemblies

Al Donato makes contact with the planet Venus and explains our game football. Sophomores demonstrate what happens when Shortridge boy, Mike Hill, gets caught in Cathedral territory.

Freshmen produce chaos in a "classroom" to prove their enthusiastic backing of the night game to come.

The Seniors, not to be outdone, "iron 'em out Smoooooth" at an assembly featuring a soap opera starring Larry Valant, Al Keckler, George Smith, Clayton Schilling, Carrol Wehmeier, Vince Todd, Ron Theiss, and Bill Pyle.

Juniors swing out with their version of Frankie and Johnny. This star-studded assembly featured the music of Larry (Elvis) Sweeney, and the singing voices of Dick Kunz, Denny Linsin, George Clark, Phil Young, and Tom Bowers. Gist of the story: Someone tried to do Cathedral wrong, but died o-doin' it!

Faculty Notes

At mid-semester Brother Donatus Schmitz, C.S.C., Provincial of the Brothers of Holy Cross, paid the faculty and students a short visit. He was pleased with Cathedral's esprit de corps.

Brother Lawrence Fitch, C.S.C.

Brother James Everett, C.S.C.

Brother John Ptaszek, C.S.C.

At mid-semester, too, there were changes made in the Cathedral faculty. Brothers Matthew, Victorian, and Richard were replaced by Brothers Lawrence, James, and John. These changes were made necessary by the three new Provinces which have recently been set into operation by the Brothers of Holy Cross.

Parent Clubs

Christmas Party! Parents, Faculty, food and fun! Above: Mr. Berg and Santa. Below: Brother Pedro, Santa, (George Helmer) and Mrs. Lillian Dugan — the squeeze play!

Parent Night

Right this way! Bill Pyle and Don Zeph give directions to Junior's mother as she makes the rounds of his classes.

BELOW: Once in the classroom teachers like Brother Casper let the folks in on the awful truth. Reactions of parents are something like those of students: no two of them are alike. Study the picture.

A Note of Thanks

To the Superintendent, Father James Higgins, to the Principal, Brother Pedro, C.S.C., and to the members of the faculty for their considerations and kindnesses while our year-book was in the trying process of being put together.

We are especially indebted to Brother Edgor, C.S.C. for the long and tedious hours he put into taking and processing pictures.

Our Sincere Thanks.
